

Welcome to Losby Manor

A country lane winds majestically into the deep forest. In the middle of magnificent nature, and the mystery of the woods, Losby Gods emerges. Strategically located on one of Norway's best Golf courses, Losby Gods is a conference hotel in historical surroundings. The old manor house is originally from 1850, and was renovated, restored and reopened in 1999 adjacent to a modern hotel and a fully equipped conference centre. Losby Gods is situated 20 minutes from Oslo city centre, only 30 minutes from Oslo Airport Gardermoen, and Lillestrøm with its "Norwegian Trade fair" is only 10 minutes away.
