

A Hidden Gem

In the wilderness, just a little over an hour's drive from Oslo international Airport and less than 30 minutes from the towns Hamar, Elverum and Løten that have a rich heritage and culture hot spots, you will find Budor. Deep forests, marshlands, soft rolling mountains and open landscapes – this is an idyllic location during wintertime with lots of snow, which is perfect for cross-country skiing. There is also a small ski center, which is available for downhill skiing, snow tubing and sledding. During summer and fall, you can experience the stillness, the wildlife, and bike and hike the trails and backroads, as well as pick berries and mushrooms. Budor Gjestegård have modern apartments for rent as well as self-service mountain houses and cabins. These can also be accommodated for larger groups or meeting with catered service upon request.
