

MAGNOR GLASSVERK

Scandinavian design since 1896

Magnor Glassverk was founded in 1896 in Magnor, in the heart of Scandinavia. Several generations of talented glassblowers have shaped the history of Magnor Glassverk. Today's glassmakers work together with renowned designers to lend a modern touch to a craft steepen in traditions.

At the glasswork you can see how glass blowing is done. An art that has been practised for more than a thousand years. In Magnor we have made mouthblown and handmade glass for 120 years.
