

BRIGADMUSEUM

Sweden in the shadow of the cold war

The Brigade Museum in Värmland is an interactive experience for people of all ages. Follow us on a journey through the Cold War period. What happened around the world and how did it affect us? You will also be introduced to the development of Swedish daily life and celebration during this fascinating era.

Café Soldathemmet offers a variety of tasty sandwiches and cakes. We can also cater for groups and conferences. The museum shop sells presents for all ages, as well as books about the Cold War. There is also a range of military clothing and equipment, including really warm winter socks, rucksacks with multiple functions and rain ponchos for those not so rare summer showers.
